

Please note: The following information is for the AWO competition only.
Please send all club competition forms and payments to Bill Thornton.

Immediately following your club competition, please do the following:

1. Complete the “2015 AWO Entry Spreadsheet”.xls and send electronically to Bob Stalder (stalderbob@gmail.com)

- Do not alter the columns or format of the spreadsheet
- Include detailed descriptions of the ingredients including suppliers
- Check that winemakers’ names are spelled correctly
- For the rosé class indicate dry (31A) or off-dry (31B)

NOTE:

- All gold and silver medals are eligible for the AWO competition, but a winemaker can only enter one bottle per class.
- Bronze medal wines are not eligible, with the following exception:
 - Any winemaker who was not awarded any GOLD or SILVER medals at the Club competition may enter one Bronze medal wine only in a class of their choice.
 - If a club does not use WJC certified judges, they may enter only one wine per class.

➤ Please submit the spreadsheet electronically to Bob Stalder promptly following your club competition! This helps tremendously with getting the entries ready for AWO. The deadline for entry spreadsheet submission is April 1.

2. Complete the Club Entry Registration Form

- Include the number of entries and the cost of judging as indicated
- Make the cheque payable to “Wine Judges of Canada”
- Complete the “delivery to Brock University” portion of the form

3. Complete the Entry Certificate

- All entries that are going on to AWO must be listed and signed by the judges
- Please arrange the entries by category or by winemaker to make the verification process easier
- You may produce the entry certificate electronically, but each entry must be signed by the judges at your club competition

4. Mail the Entry Registration Form, Entry Certificate and cheque to:

Bob Stalder
70 Brembel Street
Kitchener, Ontario
N2B 3T8

Please mail the above forms and cheque ASAP following your club comp so that the AWO entry database can be prepared for the competition.
