

Chardonnay Masterclass - Crafting Fine Ontario Chardonnay

Explore and discuss the various styles, techniques and decisions involved in the crafting and elevage of the noble Chardonnay.

Ontario is now recognized as one of the leading new producers of Chardonnay on the global stage.

He will be bringing wines from Rosehall Run and other producers to prove the case.

Presented by Dan Sullivan

Dan Sullivan is a founding partner and winemaker at Rosehall Run Vineyards, one of the earliest pioneers of Prince Edward County wines. Since 2001 Rosehall Run has been an industry leader in producing distinctive, terroir focused wines from predominantly Burgundian varietals.

Dan was a proud member of the AWO from 1996 to 2001 and past member of the Wine Judges of Canada.

Currently he sits as a board member of the Ontario Craft Winery Association and the Ontario Wine Appellation Authority (formerly VQA Ontario).
